Adam Kruger DJ/Emcee Professional DJ for all Ages all Venues

With over 13 years of experience in the industry, you can be sure that you have a professional on your hands! Always charming, outgoing and funny, Adam brings a personal touch to all of his events. With a focus on customer service, Adam will sit down with you and go through all of the formalities for the evening in question until you are completely comfortable and satisfied. And we haven't even gotten to the party yet! Adam understands just how important your event is to you! He has done over 1,500 events and has a repertoire of over 30 different line-dances that he can bring to your event and a music library of over 18,000 songs. And that doesn't include the games! Being a standup comic, Adam is comfortable in any situation, and will usually bring some humor (G-rated, of course!) to the event. Adam has been Emceeing for as long as he's been Deejaying, so when you have Adam at your event, it's like having two-in-one! Adam is also an on-camera Host and Actor and has some projects in the pipeline, so be on the lookout for Adam on TV! Adam is originally from Montreal, Canada – he speaks fluent French and even a little Hebrew! If you want to set up a personal meeting with him, just ask! He'd love to meet you!
