

John Rhoten/Theme and Period Expert/Working with Costuming and Props

John Rhoten has designed costumes , props, sets, lighting and sound. He has been with Theatre West, The L.A. Connection and The Groundlins. He has costumed and provided props for Tribute Productions, Wild Card, What in The World Productions and many others. His attention to detail and his love of history and old movies helps make him the right go-to guy for any themed event. "It's all about the details." He prides himself on accuracy for most any given time period or specific genre. "From the Renaissance to Film Noir it all has a certain texture. You just need to know how to put it all together" You may have seen him around town as a Pirate Captain or as a hard boiled Private Detective. He is always ready to help on a fun creative project and enjoys working one on one with clients to insure a seamless event.
